AMERICAN MARINES SHOOTING CONTEST

Defeat Crack English Team in England Under Adverse
Shooting Conditions.

Capt. Frank Platte, United States marines, in charge of the Memphis recruiting district, is in receipt of the record of marines' rifleman, which shows the experience with which the recruits are trained to shoot and which helped them to make such a good showing before the Hun and figures also showing how the marines won from King George's own crack regiment while competing under strict British rules to which they were unused.

This year's national service rifle match is expected to be the largest that has ever been held. The time and place have not as yet been decided upon.

Last year's meet was held at Camp Perry, Ohio, the United States marines, representing the United States, defeated the national team match, the "president's cup" and the "Wimbledon cup," besides the use of the other prizes offered, despite the fact that practically all their old, experienced shots were on duty in France. Those entered in the match, with but one exception, were serving in their first enlistment.

The marines are asking the co-operation of all its officers, particularly those in charge of rifle and target practice, in selecting men qualified to try out for the marine team. The standard for those eligible to the try-out is placed higher than ever. A man must be "good at sports," must shoot 270 or better out of a possible 300, which means a marine must be a 90 per cent shot, also must be able to make a score of 45 or better at 600 yards, slow fire. The marine corps is impressing upon its officers the importance of selecting men who will accept conditions as they are and make no "alibis."

At Glen Burnie, Nov. 23 and 24, 1918, a detachment from the 11th company of marines, Quantico, Va., competed against several navy and civilian teams, carrying away the "Wimbledon" trophy, the first prize in the ship's team competition and the long range match, in addition to a number of gold, silver and bronze medals.

The "Franklin Wharton" cup has been awarded to the 11th company of marines for their excellence in rifle practice during the year of 1918. They have attained a fine figure of merit at 317, which represents a very high degree of skill in small arms practice.

A team of three naval officers and five marine corps officers and men representing the Sixth division, U. S. Atlantic fleet, won a closely contested rifle match against a team representing the king's own Yorkshire infantry on the rifle range at Berhaneen, Ireland. The score was 811 to 855, despite the fact the Sixth division team was obliged to fire strictly under British rules and conditions, the most novel of which was the rapid fire of 15 shots per minute.

Over 51,000 marines fired the army course during 1918. Sixty per cent of these qualified as marksmen and better.

Stalking forth in person on a booze hunting expedition Wednesday morning, Chief of Police Joseph H. Burney returned to the central station with his game bag filled and nine other bags also filled. As assistants he carried along Detective Keckle and Chiozza.

The alleged preserve invaded was the Pasadena flats, Court avenue. According to the official report of Chief Burney and his squad, 10 gunny sacks, filled with bottled whisky—about one case to the bag—were found.

H. B. Beasley, Loftus Wilkes and A. Grandi, young men in the flat at the time, and accused by the police with being the caretakers for the liquor, were escorted to police headquarters and registered on charges of violating the liquor laws.

A doctor cannot afford to endanger his professional reputation by endorsing a medicine until satisfied beyond a doubt of its merits. When that same doctor uses a certain medicine himself, besides prescribing it to his patients, that medicine must be good.

The Doctor's ADVICE

Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply in any case of similar nature. Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College-Bldg., College-Elwood streets, Dayton, Ohio, enclosing self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious names will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

Answer: What you need is a laxative cough syrup, one that will drive the cold from your system. The following prescription will check your cold and cough: Get a 2½-oz. package of Concentrated Essence Mentho-Laxine and make according to directions on the bottle. Take a teaspoonful every hour or two until your cold is better. This will relieve you in a very few days.

Traveler writes: "Perhaps you can prescribe for me, as I am at a loss to understand my condition. For the past year I have suffered extreme nervousness, trembling and extremities are cold. Have poor appetite, am weak, listless and am unable to work or seek recreation. Am tired all the time and in no sense am strong, capable man I was a few years ago."

Answer: A powerful rejuvenating nerve medicine should revive the dormant sluggish condition and put new ambition and energy into your blood and nerves. Obtain Three Grain Cadomene Tablets in sealed tubes, take as per directions.

NOTE: For many years Dr. Baker has been giving free advice and prescriptions to millions of people through the press columns, and doubtless has helped in relieving illness and distress more than any single individual in the world's history. Thousands have written him expressions of gratitude and confidence similar to the following:

Dr. Lewis Baker, Dear Sir:—I happened a few days ago to read The Pittsburgh Leader and there I noticed your column of questions and answers. Also noticed that you advised those that are suffering from constipation to use Sulphur Tablets, and have tried. To my amazement, it has made a new man out of me. I have been suffering from constipation for the last 5 years and have tried various remedies without avail. I am so grateful to you that I don't know how to thank you for it. I am a very glad to recommend it to anybody. Very truly yours,

RETREAT NOT MURDER PROPER, SAYS COURT

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 12.—The circuit court of appeals in affirming the decision of the federal judge in the Southern district of Texas in a murder conviction today, held that a person should not retreat in a case of self-defense to the extent of taking life if a safe retreat was possible.

The decision was in the case of Robert B. Brown, convicted of the murder two years ago in Bee county, Texas, of James P. Herndon. Evidence showed Herndon attacked Brown with a knife and that Brown, who could have fled with safety, retreated a few feet and shot and killed his assailant. He was sentenced to 15 years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta. Herndon and Brown were engaged in government work.

TAMPICO PEARLS CHEAP.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 12. (Sp.)—Pearl beads are cheap in Tampico. This is the recent information from the Mexican coast city. The pearls are genuine and are taken from the oysters with which the sea waters about Tampico abound. The Mexican pearls lack the luster and tint of the better quality of Oriental gems, but they make attractive jewelry.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Feb. 12. (Sp.)—The house yesterday passed a bill to repeal the publicity act initiated by the people in 1915. The vote was 45 to 23. Senator Vaughan's bill to create a state bureau of crop estimates passed the senate.

What Happens to the food you eat?

During digestion certain kinds of food containing proteins, such as meat, egg white, milk casein, wheat gluten, etc., are split into many different substances.

Some of these the body uses to rebuild damaged or dead tissues; some, however, are not only useless and harmful but in some cases actually poisonous. Regular, thorough bowel evacuation gets rid of the latter.

Constipation permits stagnation and absorption of these poisons into the blood, with injury to the whole body.

Taking castor oil, pills, salts, mineral waters, etc., in order to force the bowels to move does not—cannot cure constipation—but makes it worse.

On the other hand Nujol overcomes constipation and brings about the habit of easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals, because Nujol is not a drug, does not act like any drug.

Nujol works about a return to Nature's methods of supplying necessary lubrication of the bowel contents, by facilitating intestinal muscular action, by absorbing poisonous matter, and thus securing necessary cleansing of the intestinal canal and protection of the defensive properties of the blood itself.

Nujol has no deleterious after effects, produces no bad habits, makes the bowels regular as clockwork.

Nujol is efficient at any age—under any conditions—is satisfactory and safe.

How and Why Nujol overcomes constipation is described in an interesting and authoritative booklet, "Thirty Feet of Danger" free on request. Send for it and get a bottle of Nujol from your druggist today.
